In our eyes we deem ourselves to be invincible, unstoppable, inclined to consume, discover, and relish in the world that encompasses us. We are eager to forge our own paths in life, venture out, and make choices unique as each of our personalities. From our point of view, the world is limitless in catering to our desires for adventure, success, and experience. In our eyes, there are no limits, no boundaries, and no obstacles too burdensome to overcome.

Every day for the past four years we have been amassing memories and life lessons, that collaged together, have formed a distinctive journey. Year after year we observed the people around us grow in maturity and confidence as they developed their own self-identity. Miniscule internal changes took place without our notice. Only now as we look back do we grasp the extensive effect that this journey has had on us. Distinct outlooks, perceptions, ideals, talents, and goals all contributed to a wealth of diversity that collectively we model. Maturing is a natural progression that has resulted in our outgrowing of this environment that has harbored, nurtured and equipped us to be able to progress into the subsequent phases of our lives.

In our realm of possibilities we are dauntless. The eagerness to push beyond limitations and to brand our mark on the world creates the desire for success. We perceive ourselves to be invincible, powerful, unstoppable. Carry this mindset with you; guard it with every fiber of your being. Do not falter in the face of despair, for our abilities are limitless. From our untainted view, the world is vast, exhilarating, brimming with opportunity. Know that we have every freedom, every right, and every chance to change the world and create our own destinies. Through our eyes, the world is ours for the taking.

Christmas From a Different Point of View

As the bus departed from the St. Charles House in Rochester, NH., Mr. Dugan addressed the students by saying, "You guys are the best, and today you brought a lot of happiness to those kids." With that in mind, Operation Charlie was a complete success. The day was filled with playing football, eating dinner, and constructing and playing with the new toys the kids got for Christmas. Of the forty students who attended, every one of them felt satisfied and fulfilled. On the ride home, the students were tired, yet they all felt like they delivered the true idea of Christmas. Next time you put together your Christmas list, just remember those smiles on the faces of those kids....after they opened their only Christmas present! God Bless those kids, and God Bless the people who continue to make this trip possible year after year!

A CLOSER LOOK

Four years of Fenwick Family, Friends, and Fun. Although the years have quickly come to an end, our memories will live on forever. A picture's worth a thousand words; each of the following tells our story. Whether it was through victories and losses, opening nights and final bows, or crushes and breakups, we went through them together. These experiences helped shape who we are today and how we view the world.

Prayer for Compassion

By: Matthew Perez
Xavier High School

Please Lord, Grant me not the ability to think compassionately
Nor the knowledge to know that I can love
Nor the ability to change the world
Give me the faith, the courage and the un-

That compassion without action,

And the ability to change the world without

A mid-December night, members of the Fenwick Family saw Christmas unfold before them, not through creches or decorated trees, but through the notes and harmonies of the BFHS music groups.

"Field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star..." transported the audience to a town long ago, when the Savior of humanity was born.

The first State Baseball Championship in Bishop Fenwick history, is a statement in itself. A special thanks to Coach Steeves, Coach Woods, Coach Almeida, Coach Mastrangelo and Coach Brian McCarthy for their countless time and efforts to benefit the baseball program. Thanks to the Bishop Fenwick administration for their continued support. A special thanks to A.D. Bo Tierney for his friendship. Bo's dedication and support of Bishop Fenwick athletics makes Bishop Fenwick a very special place. To the members of the 2004 baseball program, you were a part of an incredible season, one that you will look back on in the years to come and realize what a tremendous accomplishment it was. Thanks to all former players and coaches that have been a part of Bishop Fenwick baseball, this state championship belongs to all of us." Sincerely, Coach Mac

State Champions 2004!

Losing only two members from the previous year's squad, who went 17-3 in the regular season of 2003, the baseball team began with an outstanding foundation going into 2004. With astute decision making by coaches Kevin McCarthy and Russ Steeves, exceptional leadership in captains Kevin O'Malley & Neil Gendron, & seasoned experience in veterans: Mike Blanchard, John Boyle, Dave Surface, Mike Bettencourt, Jeff Giannino, Ralph Renzulli, Mike Hickey, & Harrison Bookstein, the team underwent a smooth transition into 2004 with the addition of rookies Steve Anderson, Joe Correnti & Eric Pelletier. As the season developed, the crew honed its skills, moved through the schedule, and earned a regular season record of 17-3, which included a Catholic Central League Title. With a 2nd place seed in the state tournament, the team added Brendon Pyburn, Nate Bonaiuto, Chris O'Shea, Matt Morrison, Eric Rygiel, & Bub Giarrantani to its roster. After the preliminary victories, the North Finals success, then the Eastern MA title, the squad found itself competing against St. Joseph's of Pittsfield in the MA State Championship. In a 4-1 victory, including homeruns by Giannino & Boyle, the club secured a Division III State Title for Bishop Fenwick. This team has proven that from the overwhelming victories that they cruised through, to the nerve-racking games that came down to the bottom of the seventh, dedication, fortitude, & resilience defined them more completely than their collection of impressive statistics or their endless stack of newspaper clippings.

Thanks to my family, Mom, Dad, Jeffery & Alan for supporting me. Thanks to all my friends for being there for me, especially, Kara & Krystle, Candace, Thea, Sarah, Rose, Rachel, & everyone else.

The paradox of our time in history is that we have taller buildings but shorter tempers, wider freeways, but narrower viewpoints. We spend more, but have less, we buy more, but enjoy less. We have bigger houses and smaller families, more conveniences, but less time. We have more degrees but less sense, more knowledge, but less judgment, more experts, yet more problems, more medicine, but less wellness.

We drink too much, smoke too much, spend too recklessly, laugh too little, drive too fast, get too angry, stay up too late, get up too tired, read too little, watch TV too much, and pray too seldom. We have multiplied our possessions, but reduced our values. We talk too much, love too seldom, and hate too often.

We've learned how to make a living, but not a life. We've added years to life not life to years. We've been all the way to the moon and back, but have trouble crossing the street to meet a new neighbor. We conquered outer space but not inner space. We've done larger things, but not better things.

We've cleaned up the air, but polluted the soul. We've conquered the atom, but not our prejudice. We write more, but learn less. We plan more, but accomplish less. We've learned to rush, but not to wait. We build more computers to hold more information, to produce more copies than ever, but we communicate less and less.

These are the times of fast foods and slow digestion, big men and small character, steep profits and shallow relationships. These are the days of two incomes but more divorce, fancier houses, but broken homes. These are days of quick trips, disposable diapers, throwaway morality, one night stands, overweight bodies, and pills that do everything from cheer, to quiet, to kill. It is a time when there is much in the showroom window and nothing in the stockroom....

Remember, spend some time with your loved ones, because they are not going to be around forever. Remember, say a kind word to someone who looks up to you in awe, because that little person soon will grow up and leave your side.

Remember, to give a warm hug to the one next to you, because that is the only treasure you can give with your heart and it doesn't cost a cent. Remember, to say, "I love you" to... your loved ones, but most of all mean it. A kiss and an embrace will mend hurt when it comes from deep inside of you.

Remember to hold hands and cherish the moment for someday that person will not be there again
Give time to love, give time to speak, and give time to share the precious thoughts in your mind.

AND ALWAYS REMEMBER:

Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.

-George Carlin

Dear Jennifer,

As a young woman, you are graduating high school, but you will always be our "baby girl". We cannot believe how quickly this moment has arrived.

From the moment you were born, you have brought a burst of energy and fun into our lives. We have never had a dull moment sharing your activities of dancing, cheering, and softball with you. Your accomplishments thus far are due to your extreme independence.

Whichever college you choose to study early childhood, we are confident that you will make us proud as you have done in the past. Have fun, and as you continue in your endeavors do not be afraid to ask us for help, we are here for you always. Good luck honey.

Congratulations! Love, Dad, Mom, Kathryn and "baby brother" Jonathan

Go forward with your dreams;
let their power lead you on.
Grow and learn as you go,
and never stop believing.
Move ahead with confidence,
always reaching forward.
The opportunities awaiting you are endless;
enjoy them as they unfold.
Find your place in the world,
and let your own star shine bright.
Never give up; always press on.
Each day is a fresh place to begin.
Get behind what you believe,
open your soul, and honor your dreams.
Celebrate who you are, all that you've done,
and all you've yet to accomplish.
Go for it!
May your future be bright
with happiness and success.
